

HORSE GOSSIP

Pin Oak Stud – January 26, 2018

RACE RESULTS

FULL OF ZIP

TAMPA – Full of Zip finished unplaced in what was a pretty competitive overnight stake on Saturday for Graham Motion. She broke well from the inside, moved up on the backside then flattened out, getting a little tired in the stretch. Graham will keep her at Tampa for the winter and will look for an opportunity back on the turf late February to early March.

ARMAMENT

TAMPA – He ran unplaced in a maiden special on Wednesday for Malcolm Pierce. He was fractious in the gate and got into a lot of trouble down the stretch with nowhere to go. Malcolm was very disappointed with the ride and plans to have a change of jockey the next time. Armament came out of the race in good shape and will be back in a similar spot in 3-4 weeks.

UPCOMING RACES

READY TO CONFESS

SUNDAY – Scheduled to run at Sam Houston Race Park in the $400,000 Houston Ladies Classic-G3 for Donnie Von Hemel. This looks like a good spot for her after her stakes win in December at Remington. However, she's drawn in the number one hole and will compete against seven older fillies and mares looking to score in this rich G3 race. So, let's all cheer her on in hopes she will live up to her sire's name, "More Than Ready", come race day afternoon.

BIG BLUE CHEER FOR "FEAR THE COWBOY"!

Forget basketball, all eyes at the University of KY will be focused on Fear the Cowboy in the Pegasus World Cup tomorrow. The University is the proud breeder of the horse, selling him as a yearling. Fear the Cowboy is by Cowboy Cal, a former Pin Oak stallion, and is out of Whom Shall I Fear. Students working at U.K.'s Main Chance Farm in their equine program handle broodmares, do foal watch/delivery, farm chores, maintenance and prep and sell the yearlings. Needless to say, there will be a lot of Wildcat fans watching thoroughbred racing on Saturday. GO CATS! Fear the Cowboy is owned by Raffaele Centofanti and Kathleen Amaya, and will take the Pegasus berth owned by Stronach Stables and Ronald and Jerry Frankel.
