

HORSE GOSSIP

Pin Oak Stud – April 13, 2018

RACE RESULTS

PLENTY QUICK

OAKLAWN – Plenty Quick finished 3rd in a maiden special over a very sloppy track last Friday for Donnie Von Hemel. Stalked the pace, made a little move, got hung wide down the stretch and probably could have gotten up for second. She came out of the race in good shape and after talking to Donnie this week she has the opportunity to go to Prairie Meadows for the summer as he has a second string there and this filly should be very competitive over that circuit.

UPCOMING RACES

HIGHER POWER

SATURDAY – Scheduled to run tomorrow at Oaklawn in the Northern Spur S. Some of the horses that came out of the Rebel are back in this spot just like him. He's drawn the three hole and look for an improvement off his last race as he's been training very nicely and hope that he gets away from the gate in good shape.

FULL OF ZIP

APR 21 – Tentatively looking at a stake race at Laurel after an allowance race failed to fill this week there. Graham Motion will probably put her in the entries, take a look at the race and then decide. He's also looking to see what other options are around to get her back to her winning ways.

TRAINER NEWS

GRAHAM MOTION

FAIR HILL – FULL OF ZIP is eyeing a stake on the 21st. NUMEROLOGIST is still on an easy list. POINT SYSTEM and ZESTFUL are on regular breezing schedules. Races for both should come up later in the month.

MALCOLM PIERCE

WOODBINE – Malcolm has returned to Woodbine with ARMAMENT, NOBLE THOUGHT, VERBOTEN, SCIENCE FICTION and YOU'RE MINE. He's just getting them in and getting used to the Woodbine track and will probably have some easy breezes this weekend. The first most likely runner would be SCIENCE FICTION on the 28th in a maiden special.

MIKE STIDHAM

KEENELAND – Mike is split between Keeneland and Fair Hill right now. He has a small group at Keeneland which includes SYNCHRONY. MIS-SIVE is back at the track galloping at Fair Hill after having a little work on a splint.

DONNIE VON HEMEL

OAKLAWN – HIGHER POWER is in this weekend. PLENTY QUICK seems to have come out of her race in good shape. The Oaklawn meet ends this weekend and Donnie will split his stable between Churchill and Prairie Meadows.

MICKEY PREGER, JR.

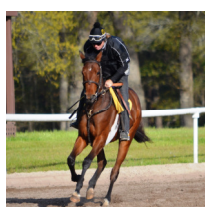

CAMDEN – Clifford visited the latter part of last week and got to see the 2yos breeze with the exception of MUSICIAN and DON'T FORGET. He saw CLEAR AS DAY and WORLDS APART breeze a quarter, commenting they both did very well. He said CLEAR AS DAY is quite sharp right now, looks like she's got a little early speed. WORLDS APART may take a little time to mature, which is very typical of the Broken Vows. CONDUCTIVE, DANCE KINGDOM and IMPLICATION all breezed a quarter in the same set with DANCE KINGDOM and IMPLICATION being quite forward. CONDUCTIVE is a big, strong colt doing things easy enough at this point. I'LL TAKE THAT breezed in the same group as INTERMITTENT. I'LL TAKE THAT is a very attractive filly and breezed nicely as did INTERMITTENT who is very immature right now, but has a lovely stride. RELISHMENT breezed a quarter very nicely. The colt has really matured mentally and physically since December. MUSICIAN missed a day or two of training and should be back at the track this coming week. DON'T FORGET popped a small curb on his hind hock, which is being treated and he'll return to tack walking in the coming week. TIME TRAVELLER continues to gallop and build a foundation. He stretched his legs the last eighth of a mile and will ship to the Von Hemel barn as soon as Donnie arrives back at Churchill.

KEENELAND'S GOT A BUD FOR YOU!

The Budweiser Clydesdales have been present at Keeneland this week. Again today and tomorrow you can meet and get your picture taken with one of the Clydesdales who will be stationed at the East Grandstand Entrance from noon to 1 p.m. On Saturday, April 14, the full Clydesdale hitch will make an on-track appearance during the race day. How cool is that?!? ©
