

HORSE GOSSIP

Pin Oak Stud – September 14, 2018

RACE CALENDAR

ARMAMENT

SATURDAY – Scheduled to run in a 1 1/16 mi. allowance on the synthetic track at Woodbine for Malcolm Pierce. He has been training nicely and this looks like a logical spot as he always seems to be finishing well in his races and Malcolm is looking forward to a good run. He will get the services of jockey Joel Rosario who is actually in town for the big stakes at Woodbine.

INTERMITTENT

(2yo f., Bernardini—Cloud Scapes)

SEPT 17 – Scheduled to make her career debut for the Graham Motion barn on Monday afternoon at Presque Isle. She's been training nicely there and Graham would like to give her a start to let her see what all the training is about. It's then quite possible for her to catch a little break and get a chance to grow up some more over the fall season.

TRAINER NEWS

GRAHAM MOTION

FAIR HILL – NUMEROLOGIST is back in light training and is doing well. POINT SYSTEM continues to train nicely. Graham is eyeing a stake race in early October for her. READY TO CONFESS continues to get closer and Graham is looking for a spot right now. It looks like her next opportunity could be an overnight stake early October at Delaware. 2yo CONDUCTIVE is just aqua-treading right now and having a little easy time. 2yo I'LL TAKE THAT missed a few days of training with a temperature this past week, hopefully it doesn't set her back too long.

MALCOLM PIERCE

WOODBINE – ARMAMENT is in this week, as mentioned. MERCURIAL had a nice 1/2-mile breeze this week and is coming along nicely. NOBLE THOUGHT came out of his win last week in great shape. We'll see him back in 3-4 weeks. YOU'RE MINE returned to galloping this past week and appears to be doing well. 2yo WORLDS APART is on a regular breezing schedule and is coming along nicely.

MIKE STIDHAM

FAIR HILL – HIGHER POWER had a nice easy 3/8's breeze this past week and is progressing nicely. MISSIVE is back at the Stidham barn after having a little vacation and is now in full training. SYNCHRONY came out of his race at Monmouth in great shape and with all going well he will be pointed towards the Shadwell Mile-G1 at Keeneland on opening weekend. It will be big step up, but he's won four graded stakes this year and it's a chance to give him the opportunity at the top level. 2yo CLEAR AS DAY is back in Mike's barn after having an easy week or two. She has gotten over her mucous from her debut race and will be back in the entries again before too long. FULL OF ZIP is training well at Arlington.

DONNIE VON HEMEL

REMINGTON PARK – Donnie has settled in with DANCE KINGDOM and DON'T FORGET. Both 2yos breezed well this past week.

Hey, I'm Back! The More Than Ready—Brownie Points yearling colt (above) returned home from Keeneland's September Yearling Sale this week after not meeting a reserve set on him. He will join the other yearlings at home for the breaking process and then on to Camden to Mickey Preger for training. We look forward to see him racing in Pin Oak colors next year! Sales results next week.
