

HORSE GOSSIP

Pin Oak Stud – December 21, 2018

RACE CALENDAR

HIGHER POWER

FAIR GROUNDS – Finished a very creditable 3rd in what was a competitive allowance race on Saturday for Mike Stidham. He came out of the race in good shape and will be back in a similar spot in January.

RACE CALENDAR

FULL OF ZIP

SATURDAY – Entered in an overnight stake at the Fair Grounds. Looks like a very competitive race, but we've entered her for the last 45 days with no luck getting an allowance race to fill. Guess we just got to take a shot and see if she can catch a little black type. She's been training well for Mike Stidham, so here's hoping she gets a piece of the action.

TRAINER NEWS

GRAHAM MOTION

TAMPA – CONDUCTIVE had a nice half mile this week and is coming along nicely. PALM MEADOWS – I'LL TAKE THAT continues to breeze and should get her next nice easy breeze tomorrow.

MIKE STIDHAM

FAIR GROUNDS – CLEAR AS DAY, MISSIVE, NOBLE THOUGHT and WORLDS APART are all breezing regularly and looking for races in the new condition book. SYNCHRONY continues to have a little easy time, training every other day. He hasn't breezed in a few weeks, but will get back on schedule after Christmas to regular galloping and breezing and hopefully make the races mid to late January.

A Pin Oak Representative at Fair Grounds.
(Photo by Clifford last Saturday at FG)

DONNIE VON HEMEL

OAKLAWN – DANCE KINGDOM has settled into Oaklawn nicely and DON'T FORGET arrived in on Tuesday and will spend a few days before shipping to Mickey Preger, Jr. at the Camden Training Center to avoid the nasty Arkansas weather in January. Donnie will look for him back in his barn by mid-February.

MICKEY PREGER, JR.

CAMDEN – Clifford visited Mickey on Wednesday. He said the horses on the breezing list were IMPLICATION, RELISHMENT, MUSICIAN and VERBOTEN and that they all looked really good and is very happy with how they are training. Mickey is also really pleased with how they are coming along. They will have a couple more breezes before departing to their trainers after the first of the year. The yearlings (soon to be 2yos) DANCE RECITAL, GOOD ALTERNATIVE, ALL SET, DISCLOSURE, DIVULGENCE and OVERSHADOW are jogging and galloping in the woods and are doing very well. Mickey is happy with the group. Clifford said they look the picture and even though they left the farm not quite a month ago they have all grown and really matured.

WEEKEND WATCH

Post times are Eastern Standard Time

Saturday, December 22

3:47p AQU Queens County S. ($125,000)
4:36p GP Mr. Prospector S.-G3 ($100,000)

Sunday, December 23

3:47p AQU Gravesend S.-L ($100,000)

MENTORS & MEALS

Pin Oak made some Middle School students happy with their new Mentors & Meals pullovers and contributions. All smiles! A big thanks to those Pin Oak employees who gave.

A Note from Ms. A

"Thank you everybody for the beautiful flowers for Christmas!"

Congrats to Pick Six Winners!

The 2018 Pick Six Competition winners are Butch Sanders came in 1st place ($250) with Tammy Oliver 2nd ($150) and a tie for 3rd were Ronald Moniz and Rodney Shearer ($50 each). The 2019 entry forms will be available soon.

Signing Up?

HALLWAY FEED MILL TOUR & LUNCH

Jan. 8th or 9th – 11:30 a.m.

Keeneland January 2019

Horses of All Ages Sale

January 7-10

Clifford's Clips from Camden TC

Implication and Musician

Dance Recital

Good Alternative

Overshadow, Disclosure, All Set & Divulgence

Relishment

Verboten

