

HORSE GOSSIP

Pin Oak Stud – February 1, 2019

RACE CALENDAR

I'LL TAKE THAT

SATURDAY – She makes her career debut at Tampa tomorrow for Graham Motion. In the 8th race, she has drawn the outside post position which is not ideal. The filly has trained well at Palm Meadows and we look forward to leading over for the race and letting her see what all this training is about. We hope she can do her G1 mama, Confessional, proud!

HIGHER POWER

FEB 7 – He has been training well and will make his second start this year for Mike Stidham at the Fair Grounds in another allowance opt clm race going 1 1/16 mi.

MISSIVE

FEB 7 – Missive is entered to run in an allowance race on the turf at the Fair Grounds for Mike Stidham. It's been a bit difficult to get a race to go for her, but Mike's taking a chance that with rain forecasted next week in New Orleans the race will come off the grass and she will get to run on the dirt. She had a good work on Monday and is ready to return to the races after a lengthy layoff.

CLEAR AS DAY

FEB 9 – Looking towards a maiden race at the Fair Grounds for Mike Stidham. She had a nice half-mile breeze Monday and is training well. Hopefully, the weather will cooperate and we'll get to stay on the grass.

SYNCHRONY

FEB 16 – Synchrony continues to train well towards his G2 stake at the Fair Grounds. He worked a nice 5/8's on Monday - a very sharp effort leading him up to this race in good order. Joe Bravo has committed to ride even though he has moved his tack to Oaklawn for the winter. Hopefully all that will work in our favor!

STALLION NEWS

Alternation

Broken Vow

ALTERNATION

● NUMEROLOGIST, 4yo colt out of Pin Oak mare Whimsy, won a maiden special in his first start at Sunland Park on Jan. 29, going 6 1/2 fur. He was purchased by Dilly Dilly Racing at the Keeneland November Sale. The new owners are thrilled with his win and so are we!

BROKEN VOW

● TOKEN VOW broke her maiden on Jan. 27 at Tampa Bay Downs, going 5 furlongs on the grass.

TRAINER NEWS

GRAHAM MOTION

TAMPA – CONDUCTIVE is getting ever closer, breezing a nice 5/8's this past week. He's probably a work or two away from a race, just needs a breeze from the gate in the near future. IMPLICATION and VERBOTEN have settled in nicely at Palm Meadows. They've had a wet early week and did not get to breeze over the turf, but hopefully that should happen this weekend. Both horses are doing well.

MIKE STIDHAM

FAIR GROUNDS – HIGHER POWER and MISSIVE have continued to breeze sharply and both have races next week. RELISHMENT had a nice 3/8's since his arrival at the Stidham barn. SYNCHRONY is also doing very well.

DONNIE VON HEMEL

OAKLAWN – DANCE KINGDOM missed a couple of days early this week due to a mild temperature, but seems to be doing well otherwise.

BRENDAN WALSH

FAIR GROUNDS – MUSICIAN has settled in nicely and should have a work in the near future.

MICKEY PREGER, JR.

CAMDEN – INTERMITTENT and DON'T FORGET are both back under tack and jogging and will resume galloping. INTERMITTENT will spend the next several weeks building a good foundation. DON'T FORGET coming off a little break should return to the Von Hemel barn by the end of February. 2yos: Fillies DANCE RECITAL and GOOD ALTERNATIVE are galloping in the woods now and are doing nicely. The four colts, ALL SET, DISCLOSURE, DIVULGENCE and OVERSHADOW are doing well according to Mickey. No issues, just everybody galloping and keeping up with their lessons. All going well in the next week or so, Clifford will try to make another trip to see everybody and will give us a full report.

“GOLDEN HORSE CHALLENGE”

Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation has announced a partnership with the Palomino Horse Breeders of America (PHBA) Amateurs that will be known as the Golden Horse Challenge. To participate in the Challenge, one must donate to Grayson between February 1 and August 31, 2019, and mention “GHC” or “Golden Horse Challenge” when donating. Those who participate will be eligible for prizes including four tickets to the 2019 Breeders' Cup at Santa Anita Park, a print from famed Thoroughbred artist Robert Clark, a stallion halter, and a Grayson swag bag. The donor who contributes the greatest amount of money to Grayson on behalf of the Golden Horse Challenge will win a Bluegrass experience October weekend getaway package. Individuals can support the Golden Horse Challenge by donating online at grayson-jockeyclub.org under “Get Involved”. All monetary contributions are tax-deductible. “Grayson aspires to improve the health and soundness of every type of horse, and we are honored to collaborate with PHBA Amateurs in pursuit of this goal,” said Jamie Haydon, president of Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation, traditionally the nation's leading source of private funding for equine medical research that benefits all breeds of horses. Since 1983, the foundation has provided more than $26.3 million to fund 358 projects at 43 universities in North America and overseas. Information about the foundation is available at grayson-jockeyclub.org.
