Pin Oak Stud – September 6, 2019

RACE RESULTS WORLDS APART

WOODBINE – Coming off a long layoff, she finished a very good 5th on Sunday for Malcolm Pierce. She got ping-ponged at the start -- bounced around a bit and shuffled back, but fought patiently from back of the field to make a huge run down the lane to finish fifth, beaten by about a length and a half for all of it. She came out of the race in great shape and will be plenty tough next time in a similar spot.

RACE CALENDAR DISCLOSURE

(2yo c., Bernardini—Whisper to Me)

SUNDAY – He will make his second career start for Malcolm Pierce with the addition of blinkers as he has worked very well with this equipment change. He will go 1 1/16 mi. on the synthetic and will be ridden by Patrick Husbands.

DON'T FORGET

SEPT 11 – Looking towards a maiden special for the Donnie Von Hemel barn at Remington. He's been training sharply out there and it looks like a good spot for him.

INTERMITTENT

Tentatively looking for a race at Woodbine, going 1 1/16 mi. Her race for tomorrow did not fill, so we're hoping it will be put back up on Wednesday.

SYNCHRONY

SEPT 14 – Eyeing the G1 Woodbine Mile and it looks like jockey Flavien Prat will make a cross country trip to ride him. He's been training very well at Fair Hill for the Stidham barn.

TRAINER NEWS

GRAHAM MOTION

FAIR HILL – I'LL TAKE THAT is having a little easy time. IMPLICATION is on a regular breezing schedule. He had a sharp 5/8's this week and is doing well. VERBOTEN also continues well and is looking for a race at Laurel mid-September.

MALCOLM PIERCE

WOODBINE – INTERMITTENT looking for a race. WORLDS APART came out of her race in good shape. 2yo DISCLOSURE is entered for Sunday.

MIKE STIDHAM

FAIR HILL – SYNCHRONY is doing well. 2yo ALL SET is back galloping. Mike will receive CLEAR AS DAY back from her vacation this weekend.

DONNIE VON HEMEL

REMINGTON – DON'T FORGET has settled in with a race next week. CHURCHILL – 2yos GOOD ALTERNATIVE and OVERSHADOW continue to learn their lessons.

BRENDAN WALSH

CHURCHILL – 2yo colt DIVULGENCE is training forwardly at this time.

PIN OAK TRAINING BARN

A Perfect Saratoga Sunday!

2yo Perfect Alibi's performance was irrefutable in Sunday's Grade 1 Spinaway at Saratoga, defeating favorite Frank's Rockette by 1 1/4 lengths. Bred by Pin Oak, out of stakes-winning Maria's Mon mare No Use Denying, the filly has earned $380,988 in 4 starts (3 stakes) since her first start mid-May. Congrats and best wishes go to owner Tracy Farmer and his team at Shadowlawn Farm, trainer Mark Casse, jockey Irad Ortiz, Jr. and all her stable crew. A few cool comments on Sunday's race -- "She amazes me because she's just so laid back and doesn't get excited about anything," said Casse. "When the gate opens, she's tough. I wasn't sure if she was going to get through (on the rail). I knew if she could just get her head in front, she would probably be fine. What a nice filly." "She's game. She likes to fight and she has a strong kick," Ortiz said. "She wanted to win and there was some contact but when she made the hole, she made it through. Everything worked out good for her today. I think she can go better going longer, but we'll enjoy this right now and see what happens next." "This filly is just a fighter," Casse continued. "She keeps coming. I think the farther she runs, the better she likes it. Now, we have to decide if we go to the Frizette (Oct. 6 at Belmont) or the Alcibiades (Oct. 4 at Keeneland). Hopefully, if all goes well, we'll head to the Breeders' Cup. I think she's proven she at least deserves a chance."
