

PIN OAK'S HORSE GOSSIP

SEPTEMBER 25, 2020

RACE CALENDAR

I'LL TAKE THAT

SATURDAY – She is entered to run at Remington for Donnie Von Hemel, going 6½ furlongs and has drawn the first hole. Hopefully shortening her up and maybe making one run will give her a chance to pass some horses, boosting her confidence. So, we hope she runs well since she's been training nicely up to this point.

TRAINER NEWS

GRAHAM MOTION

FAIR HILL – DANCE RECITAL is back galloping and is doing well. She seems to have recovered from her little surgery and should progress from here. 2yos FASCINATION and PLANETARY continue to rack up the miles, getting a nice foundation underneath them. They should be back on the breezing schedule before long.

MIKE STIDHAM

FAIR HILL – GOOD ALTERNATIVE is still on a regular breezing schedule. She had a nice work again last weekend and we will be looking for a race for her in the near future. 2yo ARBITRARY is having a little easy time aqua-treading and using the cold-water spa giving her limbs a chance to catch up to her training. 2yo COMPLY returned out of his race in good shape and seems to have settled back into his routine. Mike feels like his race would have done him a world of good mentally. We should look for the colt back on the grass either at Laurel or Monmouth in the near future.

DONNIE VON HEMEL

REMINGTON – I'LL TAKE THAT is entered in a maiden special tomorrow. 2yo INSIDE STORY is back galloping after having an easy week due to some bloodwork abnormalities, but she should be on track pretty soon.

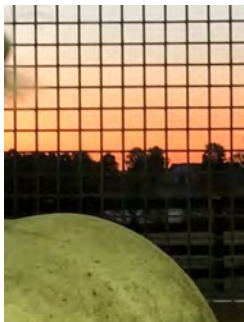

BRENDAN WALSH

ELLIS PARK – DIVULGENCE is on a regular breezing schedule and should be ready to run somewhere around mid-October.

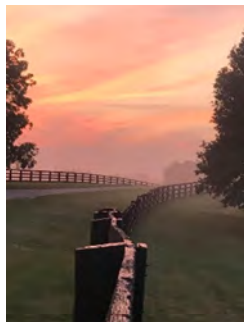

KESMARC

IMPLICATION and OVERSHADOW continue tack walking and jogging and should ship to Camden, SC next week where they will get more serious training before heading to New Orleans for the opening of their meet mid to late November.
